Fire Incident in BM Depot at Chittagong

Dear Customer,

As you may be aware that around 9:30 PM on June 4th, 2022 a fire broke out in a private container depot, BMCD. Chittagong Fire Service department rushed to the incident site to control the situation, but the fire spread quickly within an hour with a massive explosion afterwards.

Various sources have reported that there have been multiple casualties however, all Maersk & Sealand employees are safe, the total impact is still under assessment. According to our report around 300 TEUs of export laden containers and 36 TEUs of import laden containers of Maersk were stored at BM at the time of the incident. Apart from that there were also approximately 8,000 CBM stored at the export shed for consolidation.

For any impacted cargo, our teams will reach out to you with further details. We will keep you updated about the incident and please feel free to reach out to your respective customer care partner.

Yours sincerely,
